MONDAY REPORT

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor
November 2, 1992

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG1-12-5
Date: 9/29/95

SHELTON STATE EMPLOYEE NAMED NORTHPORT CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

June Hogue, director of continuing education for the college, was named Northport's Outstanding Citizen for 1991-92 during the recent annual meeting. This was the second consecutive year that an employee of Shelton State Community College has been named Citizen of the Year for Northport, Alabama. Ms. Hogue served as a classroom teacher and principal for over 30 years and joined Shelton State's staff this past summer. Under her new job, she will help launch the college's continuing education program.

She is a graduate of Leadership Tuscaloosa and has served on the steering committee for the organization. As an active member of the Chamber, she has served as a member of the Community Relations Committee and the Governmental Affairs Committee . She was named to the Board of Directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce, 1991-94.

She is a member of the Northport Advisory Board to Park and Recreation Association of Tuscaloosa County as well as to the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce. In addition she serves on the Citizens Advisory Committee to the West Alabama Planning and Development Council. She is the chairperson of the Mayor's Advisory Council of Northport and serves on the Mayor's Study and Advisory Committee of Fire and Police Departments of Northport and the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee to study Northport's special needs.

Last year Ms. Hogue was selected by Tuscaloosa County Council of PTA as the Principal of the Year. She is a member of the Pilot Club of Northport and has served in various capacities with the organization. She is also a member of Carrolls Creek Baptist Church and has been active with various religious groups at her church.

SHELTON STATE 'S WELLNESS CENTER TO SPONSOR AIDS OUTREACH PROGRAM

The Shelton State Wellness Center, in conjunction with the West Alabama Aids Outreach Program, will sponsor a free workshop entitled "Everything you wanted to know about Aids." This workshop will be held Thursday, November 5, 1992 at 1:15 p.m. in the Wellness Center. The public is invited to attend.

1992 NATIONAL TECH PREP NETWORK FALL CONFERENCE

The National Tech Prep Network, initiated to bring together leaders in this new field, hosted its national conference, October 4-6, 1992 in Chicago. More than 2500 Tech Prep practitioners shared and learned more about how Tech Prep can provide an innovative education and career path for non-baccalaureate bound high school students. Those representing Shelton State were Charles Payne, dean of administrative services and associate dean of technical services, and Fran Viselli, Tech Prep coordinator of the West Alabama Tech Prep Consortium.

The conference featured presentations from Tech Prep experts, as well as business and industry, government and community leaders in education. Presentations were made on effective partnerships between educators and private industry, career and guidance, curriculum and evaluation. The Tech Prep concept provides a vital plan to improve our educational system and to allow America to remain competitive in the world market.

SHELTON STATE SPANISH CLUB PLANS GIANT GARAGE SALE

The Shelton State Spanish club is now collecting items for a GIANT garage and rummage sale to be held in late April. Please bring your items to Mrs. Marilyn Terry, Room 338, or you may call her at 391-2201 or Ms. Sharon Deck, extension 2256. Arrangements can be made to pick up large items. The sale will benefit the Mabel Harries Endowed Spanish Scholarship Fund.

SHELTON PUBLICATIONS RECEIVE REGIONAL AND STATEWIDE RECOGNITION

Shelton State's 1991 Annual Report was named the third place winner and received a Bronze Medallion of Merit during the recent District II competition of the National Council of Marketing and Communications. NCMPR is a national association representing communication and marketing officers in the country's two year colleges. As part of the competition, Shelton State competed with colleges in 11 southern states.

This past summer, Shelton's 1990 Annual Report and the SHELTON STATEMENT, the college newsletter, were named first place winners in statewide competition sponsored by the Alabama College System Public Relations Association. Shelton States's Spring 1992 Schedule and a college brochure were named second place winners in the same competition.

VESTAVIA ELEMENTARY STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS AS PART OF ADOPT-A-SCHOOL PROJECT

Seventeen students from Vestavia Elementary School in Northport were named winners in a poster contest sponsored by Shelton State Community College as part of its Adopt-A-School program. The poster contest was designed to celebrate "The Future: New Worlds, Then and Now," the national theme of the Columbus Quincentenary Jubilee Committee.

The winners will receive the prizes during an assembly scheduled to be held at Vestavia on November 2 at 9 a.m. Members of the college's chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national community college honorary, will sponsor and present the prizes.

The awards program will also feature a presentation by Rick Vanderpool, who has traveled throughout the United States to cities named in honor of Columbus. In November, Vanderpool will present his own photographic exhibit, entitled "A Columbus Mosaic," at Shelton State.

Fifth grade student Ryan Whitson was named the grand prize winner of the poster competition. Other winners in the poster contest include: Second grade: Bess White, first prize; Stephanie Lynn O'Bryant, second prize; Daniel Roever, honorable mention. Third grade: Laura Read, first prize; Josh Evans, second prize; Anthony Warren, honorable mention; Michael Shelton, honorable mention. Fourth grade: Tyler Turner, first prize; Christy Cook, second prize; Leslie Langley, honorable mention. Fifth grade: Carrie Darden, first prize; Emily Vitton, second prize, Erin McCullar, honorable mention. Sixth grade: Soyoung Park, first prize; Julie Bradley, second prize; Sara-Margaret Coker, honorable mention.

All entries are currently on display through October 28 in the library on Shelton's Skyland Boulevard Campus during the following hours: Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m. -9 p.m. and Friday, 8 a.m.- 4 p.m. The exhibit is free and open to the community.

"CLEAN UP THE COLLEGE DAY" TO BE HELD AT SHELTON STATE

On Friday, November 6, the SGA will challenge other student organizations and faculty and staff to help clean up the college. The campaign will begin at 12:30 p.m. and continue through 2:30 p.m. Free pizzas will be offered to all participants . Everyone is encouraged to help make our school as clean as possible.

Calendar for Fall Semester 1992

Veteran's Day . . . . . November 11
Thanksgiving . . . . . November 26 and 27
Last Day of Class . . . . . December 11
Final Exams . . . . . December 14 -18